Bacon Street Electric Car Line Will NOT Be Abandoned

Real Rapid Transit

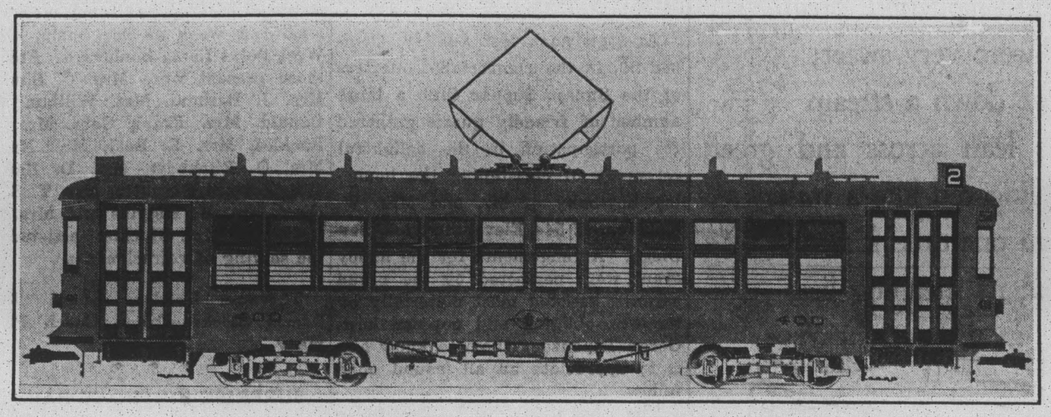
BUSSES TO REPLACE VOLTAIRE STREET CAR LINE AND OLD TOWN ROUTE

Traffic Manager F. R. Smalley of the San Diego Electric Railway during a cheerfully interesting talk with the editor of The Beach News on last Wednesday afternoon, clearly and fully outlined the wonderful benefits to the beach districts that will result from the construction of the new, fast electric line to the seashore.

Referring directly to Ocean Beach, Mr. Smalley emphasized the fact of the continuance of the Bacon street line and with BETTER SERVICE. Cars will be run every twenty minutes, and the trip down town will be made in about twenty minutes by a system of fast multiple trains, connecting at a big station to be established near the point where the line comes directly to Ocean Beach across the bay flats. The main line will continue to Mission Beach and thence on to La Jolla, all to be included in the new rapid transit schedule.

Speaking of the method of transportation, Mr. Smalley stated that power will be applied by the pantographic system and that every worthwhile invention devised by modern ingenuity for the safety, comfort and convenience of the public will be included in the equipment and installation of the new fast line.

And all construction work will be marked RUSH!



STEP LIVELY! ALL ABOARD! HERE'S THE NEW CARS

EPOCHAL EVENT IN TRANSPORTATION FACILITIES FOR THE BEACH DISTRICTS

E. J. Burns, assistant general manager of the San Diego Electric Railway, struck the first blow with a pick last Monday that marked the actual beginning of construction work on the new fast electric line to the beaches. An extra effort will be made to have cars running to Mission Beach within six months and all work will be rushed accordingly. The new line joins the rest of the San Diego Electric at the corner of Broadway and Kettner boulevard, where the construction work was started this week. It will go out on Kettner boulevard, cutting across Dutch Flats to West Point Loma boulevard, then joining the present Ocean Beach line where it forks, one line going into Ocean Beach, the other across the bridge to Mission Beach. From Mission Beach a single track line will run on to La Jolla. The new line will shorten the distance to Ocean Beach some two miles, and the time not less than 20 minutes, about cutting in half the present running time.

In breaking ground for the start of the new line last Monday, Mr. Burns paid high tribute to the ambition and vision of the Spreckels, father and son, and the development of the city's transportation system under their direction.

Better Beach Transportation Now Assured

Through the courtesy of Traffic Manager F. R. Smalley, of the San Diego Electric Railway, The Beach News herewith presents an excellent illustration of the latest type of Universal cars, already secured to be placed in service on the new fast electric lines now in course of construction to the beach districts of San Diego. There will be fifty of these cars in operation, costing $17,500 each, and embodying the latest developments in the way of flexibility of car operation, safety and public transportation demands.

WHEN IS A WHEEL?

The question of just when the wheels used by beach concessions are gambling devices and when they are not was again brought to the front with the arrest early this week of Oliver Lawrence, an Ocean Beach concessionaire, and his wheel confiscated by the police. He was later released on bond.

The Bible

(By Donald Cameron)

This is a subject of universal intertst; something to reflect on at different stages, when the volume of minds are guiding us hither and thither with no definite line of vision; something apart, showing the workings of minds singly and in volume with the material. A book to be always with us, as nature is with us in and round us—vision, mind, material, wisdom, guidance, system, rest. The eyes of nature are looking and searching as the eyes of the world are looking to America today; and we pray for guidance within ourselves—nature, the vision, mother earth, the material; a moving picture, when night comes the vision of tomorrow is with us.

The Bible is a book written by men of great understanding, as it visions man, the gardener, preparing the ground for the seed; nature, the vision, preparing the minds of men for ideas (new but yet old).

Men may come and men may go, but nature goes on forever; and so the Bible is there to give a reflection to guide us.

What was the great light that made the Highlanders of Scotland stay close to nature? Their chiefs were men with well developed minds and well developed bodies. The real sporting spirit in America today—that same spirit that was overcome for a time (due in part to mistaken principle) when might overcame right on that fateful day on Colloden. Rushed back and bottled up to burst and scatter is the spirit that is stirring within us today. Graft got in at the back door and painted the picture to suit. So we turn forward to vision the future of our children, preparing the way; we, the material, to guide and prepare the way to happiness for the children that are as yet a vision.

The spirit of the pioneers, the cowboy, as he stands with his girl by his side on the pinacle of the mountain and sees reflected in the eye of his horse, the valleys stretching out and peopled, the picture of contentment with themselves in the foreground.

There is a kindred spirit that should bring us all in line, independent of religions, nationalities and politics, and guide us to look towards the Statue of Liberty and what it represents. Let us bring our load to sketch the vision. It takes the vision to produce the material, and the material to produce the vision.

The prohpets of old said with all the getting, get wisdom. The gardener says with all the getting, get humus.

The honest man whom virtue sways;
His God adores, what's right obeys;
Does fractious men's rebellious pride,
And threatening tyrant's rage deride.

DONALD CAMERON.

DISCLOSURE OF ROMANCE BY OCEAN BEACH COUPLE DELAYED NEARLY A YEAR

Frank B. Harrison, the well and favorably known Superior Court clerk, residing on Santa Monica avenue, and also secretary of the O. B. Chamber of Commerce, has announced his marriage to Miss May Wilkinson, formerly of Avalon, Mo., the ceremony being solemnized at Los Angeles on November 11, 1922, at which time the couple agreed to keep the wedding secret for a while. The disclosure of the romance was made recently at the American Legion convention in San Francisco, where Mr. Harrison was in attendance as a member of San Diego Post No. 6, being accompanied by his wife on the trip. The Legion boys gave the happy couple a rousing reception when the joyful news became known.

Incidentally, it may well be added that The Beach News was first in the field with a statement published several months ago that Frank was a brother benedict, yet without full details of the romance inadvertenly mixed matters by giving him an extra family relative. However, all's well that ends with the glorious echo of wedding chimes, and Ye Editor and his devoted consort extend heartiest congratulations to Frank and "Wilkie" upon their blissful union, while wishing them long and continuous happiness and prosperity.

NEIGHBORHOOD HOUSE PLAYS RETURN DATE HERE NEXT SUNDAY

The Neighborhood Club is booked for a return game with the O. B. team next Sunday on the local grounds at Niagara and Defoe street. It promises to be a humdinger! Be there!

GREAT TEN-INNING GAME BY "BULLETS"

Ocean Beach team tasted its first defeat of the season last Sunday at the hands of the Escondido team after ten innings of good high class baseball that was full of pep from the first ball until the winning run was scored. Graves of Escondido and Vitalk of the Beach team both pitched a wonderful game of ball.

OFFICIAL SCORE

	R.	H.	E.
Ocean Beach	2	10	3
Escondido	3	14	1

Batteries—O. B., Vitak and McMullen; Escondido, Graves and Brown.

ON THE SIDE LINES. By "BULLETS."

Allen made a hit with the crowd when he inspected the ball thrown by the pitcher in the second stanza.

Caldon's one-anded stop after leaping high in the air was the best play of the day.

Coleman had better watch his step the next time we play Escondido, for the girls will sure get his "goat" and keep it.

"Kid" Webster sure had a great day in the field.

Ogden sure looked like a million dollars at short today.

Earl Haas had 'em going with the clanking of a cow bell on the side lines at every opportunity.

The ladies and kiddies helped to boost by tooting the auto horns.

Oh, you, Ketcham! Why didn't you "ketch 'em?"

That tenth was a thriller.

NEW AUTO PURCHASED

M. J. Sterling of Reid's Transfer on Bacon street has purchased a new Ford coupe.

Pacific Beach

PACIFIC BEACH SCHOOL NOTES

By Roberta Durham and Thelma Slattery, 8th Grade

There are 130 pupils in the fine new Pacific Beach school. There are eight grades and five teachers, each teacher having two grades, except the first and second grade teachers.

We have in the seventh and eighth grades some very talented pupils. Lucy Lawrence, a future Jenny Lind; Robert Martin, who is very gifted in art; Jack Burbidge, a chief comedian, and othe rswhose talents aren't known quite so well.

The seventh and eighth grades of the Pacific Beach school, with the money acquired through a number of candy sales, ave bought a large $10 goldfish aquarium. The aquarium with four fish in it, has been placed in the center of the room, where all may enjoy watching it.

A mock baseball game was played last week between the Yankees and Giants of the Pacific Beach school. In this game the Giants won, with a score of 20 to 14.

The fifth and sixth grades of the Pacific Beach school were recently visited by Miss Anderson of the Bishop school. She gave a very interesting talk.

The fifth grade has a sand table to illustrate what they are studying, Farm Products being what they are studying now.

The small green bungalow has been moved from the old school grounds, and has been put in back of the new schoolhouse for the boys' manual training work shop.

There will be a school entertainment at the new school house some night in the near future. The seventh and eighth grades will give some short vaudeville acts, which were successfully practiced Tuesday. The other classes have something good, too, so every one be prepared to come when the play is given.

SOME SIDE-LIGHTS ABOUT BEACH FOLKS YOU MAY KNOW

Yea, boy, the long promised overhead sign to grace the highway near the corner of Cass street, was actually started last Saturday afternoon when the masts were set in cement. Next week the top masts will be set by which time it is hoped to have the arched piece complete. Among the non-union cement finishers who attended the ceremony were Messrs. Hodge, Buck, Cragan, Gott, Altenburg, Doc Adams, Owen and Brophy (who spent most of the time playing with the hose); Pery Eldridge acted as superintendent in addition to holding his own on the business end of a pick and shovel.

Wm. (Bill) Roffe, tile magnate, Boy Scout master, 18-karat booster and all-around good fellow, is looking for another act for his troop of Boy Scouts to put on.

Doc Adams, youthful gland specialist and expert trapper, gave an interesting and instructive exhibition before a large and lazy audience on "How to Clean Used Bricks." The wheelbarrow was filled to capacity and only one trowel was used.

Bill Samuels, handsome cornetist and folding-bed salesman, is getting restless waiting for the proposed dance dates to be announced so he may again "blow his horn."

Doc Hollister's last official act before forsaking Lamont street, was his present to Fried Broph of a folding moth-eaten crowbar.

Carl Clark has joined the Pacific Beach Ship Builders' association of which C. R. Kelley and Sig. Matty are charter members. The craft was successfully launched (so Carl says) in Mission bay after dark and will be christened, "Willitsink."

Friend Henry Gross has again returned to God's country, but seems somewhat lonesome. Better bring Doc Hollister back and start on another mile or two of stone wall.

A photograph of the bathing beach at the bay (foot of Kendall street), is to be taken on Sunday afternoon. All those with bathing suits are requested to attend whether they need the bath or not.

A press club is being organized at the Army and Navy academy.

Items of interest concerning Pacific Beach or its natives handed to any member of the Community League will be duly presented for publication.

America's Marvels

NATURAL AND OTHERWISE

By T. T. Maxey

THE JUMEL MANSION

The Robert Morris house, more recently called the Jumel Mansion, located near One Hundred and Sixtieth street and Amsterdam avenue, in the city of New York, is one of the most famous of all the historic buildings in that greatest of all American cities. Well preserved, it is a splendid specimen of Georgian architecture.

As history goes, Colonel Robert Morris of the Forty-seventh British regiment and a comrade-in-arms of General George Washington, purchased the property and erected this mansion which he subsequently presented to his bride, in 1763.

General Washington occupied the place in 1776, while 8,000 volunteer soldiers camped in the neighborhood. During a battle which resulted in the capture of Fort Washington, this house was the center of operations. In 1777 it served as the headquarters of the British army. In 1778 it was occupied by General Baron Von Kuypausen and his German following as Hessian headquarters.

Following the close of the Revolutionary war, this building was familiarly known as Calumet Inn. Stage coaches operating between New York city and Albany changed horses at this point. President Washington and his cabinet dined here in 1790.

In 1810 Stephen Jumel, a French wine merchant of fame and fortune, purchased this mansion, restored it to its condition in the time of Washington. Jumel died in 1832. The following year Mme. Jumel married the illustrious Aaron Burr who, in 1801, was elected vice president of the United States, and who shot and killed the celebrated Alexander Hamliton in a duel which was the outgrowth of a political feud, at Weehawken, New Jersey, in 1804. Subsequently, Attorney Chase, who studied law in Burr's office and who married a niece of Mme. Jumel, occupied this house for 50 years.

In 1903 the property was purchased by the city and in 1907 the Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution acquired the use of the house for a museum of historical relics and furnishings of the Revolutionary period.

In the council chamber, a large octagonal room at the rear of the broad hall, General Washington, it is said, received visits from the sachems of the five Iroquois tribes who came to offer their allegiance to the cause of liberty.
